

Military Ball Dress Code

DRESS CODE: Instructors will brief Cadets and ensure Cadets communicate to their guests the rules regarding dress and uniform standards and on any unique uniform requirements. The established dress standards are in direct correlation with military protocol. Enforcement of the Dress Code will be upheld by the Senior Army Instructor and Army Instructor regarding a breach in dress standards. Please ensure you as a Cadet comply with the standards you read about here and that your guest are also in compliance to avoid any embarrassing events. There will be NO EXCEPTIONS to the Dress Code.

a. Male Cadets. Army JROTC cadets will wear their Class “A” ASU uniform with a white shirt and Black Bow Tie.

b. Female Cadets/Female Guest. Females must wear a floor-length dress/gown. Dresses must be floor length or below the knee in both front and back. Additionally, dresses should not be revealing in the front and should be cut no lower than the bra line in the back. Females who opt to wear such attire will not be permitted entry to the ball. All female cadets have the option of wearing their military “Class A” ASU equivalent uniform. Footwear should be appropriate, (no flip flops or sandals) and MUST be worn at all times in the ballroom and throughout the venue.

c. Non-Cadet (Male): Formal; dark blue or black suit with tie. Sport coats are not acceptable. Non-compliant guests will be turned away. (Flamboyant or pastel colored suits such as red, purple, lime, etc. are not appropriate)

d. Non-Cadets (Female): Dress standards are the same as female cadets that choose not to wear a uniform.

e. Flowers will not be worn on Service Uniforms.

f. All Cadets will remain in their full uniform at all times.

g. For Guest. Shoes, coats and ties remain on at all times for

h. Covers and Overcoats. JROTC Cadets are not required to wear a cover while in Formal/Semi Formal uniform. Leave your beret at home so you don’t misplace it or surrender it to the Lost and Found which will require that you follow procedures to retrieve. Overcoats will be checked in the cloakroom or left in the car.
